

Beginners Lip Micropigmentation Training

Thornbridge Academy is host to JDN Micropigmentation Training and is proud to be a Goldeneye Micropigmentation Affiliate Academy. We deliver the highest standard of education, training and ongoing support for all our students. The training courses we offer are fully insured, accredited and taught by experienced, qualified trainers. The courses use a variety of online learning, live support, live practice clinic and theory sessions.

Lip micropigmentation (sometimes referred to as lip blush) is one of the most popular treatments in micropigmentation. It can be an extremely valuable service to offer as part of your existing Micropigmentation skill set.

Training is open to all students irrespective of your background and beauty, aesthetics or otherwise. Courses are delivered to a maximum of 2 students at a time, this ensures a more attentive learning experience for students to allow confidence and skills to develop easily.

Our course covers all aspects of theory and practical techniques to provide hands-on experience to help you master the technique of lip micropigmentation. Also referred to as lip blush.

Terms & Conditions

In booking your course, you agree to the following T&C's.

We understand that there are certain circumstances that are beyond your/our control.

You are always welcome to write and query if you feel we could use discretion. To reschedule a course there is a £50 admin fee, this must be requested at least 21 days before the start of the course date. Within 14 days the course is non transferable.

Only one change of date is permitted, and this can only be changed should other dates be available.

All requests for cancellations and changes must be confirmed in writing by letter or email. All courses and deposits are non refundable. All materials supplied by JDN Micropigmentation must not be copied or used in any way without permission. All material is subject to copyright and must not be reproduced in any form.

A £1000 deposit towards the course cost is required to secure your place and bookings must be made in advance.

This fee is non-refundable and non-transferable.

Full payment must be made in full no later than 3 weeks before the course.

Some of our courses include an online theory element.

Cancellations cannot be made after the theory sections are accessed.

Thornbridge Academy reserves the right to re-allocate the course place to another delegate if fees are not paid in time.

Students that act inappropriately or act dangerously will be dismissed or asked to leave.

Students may be required to pair up and work on each other.

All students are responsible for their own clients/models to work on and demonstrate the practical skills during the course unless otherwise advised.

Thornbridge Academy reserves the right to alter course dates & venues at any time without prior notice. This is rare, and if needed we will give as much notice as possible. All students must practice whilst on the course. On occasions where Josephine De Nardo is a trainer on behalf of another brand, their T & Cs shall also apply.

Students must be dressed in a presentable manner in full salon workwear for practical clinic days. If this is not possible a dress code of a plain t-shirt and trousers and flat closed-toe shoes must be worn.

Certificates are issued after successful completion of the course. Certificates that are lost, misplaced or damaged that require re-issuing will be chargeable at £20 per certificate required. You must provide the training date and your full name so we can identify your registration.

Our courses are certified and accredited. Insurance with preferred insurers is available on certification for those that meet the requirements.

Your own insurance must be in place for any course which requires unsupervised case studies.

It is your responsibility to check and arrange your insurance and any relevant licensing or insurance.
